MARGARETE DONNA RAOCHE PALEPOI from the Samoa Police Service says conducting awareness with the Community Relations Team has further strengthened the role of the Participating Police Force in the Solomon Islands.

“I have been engaged with the Community Relations Team of RAMSI’s Participating Police Force for the past three months. I have enjoyed interacting with the locals, giving community talks in and around Honiara.”

“The community relations program has also given me the confidence to make public presentations and communicate what PPF are doing in the Solomon Islands”, she said.

Margarete is part of the sixth Samoan Police Contingent currently serving in the Solomon Islands.
