TUVALU FACT SHEET

Tuvalu contribution to the Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands
Tuvalu has provided police officers to the Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands since December 2004.

Sikale Sikale

Constable Sikale Sikale from Tuvalu police has nine years of policing experience in Tuvalu. He is part of the Tuvalu fifth Contingent posted to RAMSI. He has been posted to Isuna police post in the Weathercoast area of Guadalcanal Province.

His experiences of patrol while at Isuna included climbing steep hills and ridges, and crossing creeks and rivers to reach villages to conduct community awareness on issues regarding law and order, and the role of the RAMSI to the community.

"One of my favourite experiences is learning Solomon Pijin, which I picked up quickly, and which has made it so much easier for me to communicate," he said.

There are two members in mission now.
